NCC

DYAL SINGH COMPANY

During current academic year, a total of 150 boy cadets were enrolled in Dyal Singh Company NCC (Boys). The NCC Unit (Boys) of Dyal Singh College participated in various camp and achieved many milestones during this academic year. It was the first time that a total of 16 cadets were selected for CM rally 2020 camp. All of this was possible because of proper training of cadets by staff and instructor of unit and college, under the proper supervision of Lt. Keshav Kumar Saini, ANO and Col. Manish Prasad, Commanding Officer (3DBN) and whole staff.

- Army Attachment Camp (2019): 27 Cadets
- Annual Training Camp: 70 Cadets
- Other Social Activities
 - Series of events and morning yoga sessions
 - Tree Plantation
 - Swachh Bharat Abhiyan
 - Blood donation camp, and many other.

NCC- Girls

It is a pleasure to state that Dr Ruchi Gupta, from Department of Economics was selected for Associate NCC Officer (ANO) three months residential training in the Indian Army at the Officers Training Academy (OTA), Gwalior. The training involved strenuous physical, field, analytical, and classroom activities. Dr. R Gupta successfully completed her course with an overall A grade and won many awards and medals of excellence, and was made the course senior. She has been accorded the rank of Lieutenant, making her one of the very few teachers in the University to earn the coveted rank. An Associate NCC Officer is an important link between Indian Army and the cadets and the prime job of the ANO is to train youth for recruitment in the Indian Army. During the year, the NCC girls participated in several events. A cycle rally was organized in the Lodhi Road by cadets of NCC Girls for generating awareness.
