(UNIVERSITY OF DELHI)

The college owes its origin to the extreme generosity and foresight of Sardar Dyal Singh Majithia, who willed his vast wealth in 1895 for setting up an education trust for a truly secular college. At its current location at Lodi Road, Delhi it started in 1959 and is currently imparting education to over 6000 students including foreign students through faculties of Arts, Commerce, Mathematical Sciences, Science and Social Sciences. It strives to create conducive environment for students to equip them with necessary knowledge to contribute not only to their own story of growth but also of this college, University of Delhi and our great nation. With a view to develop a wholesome personality, the college also equips students with sports and extra-curricular facilities and training.

Realizing the need for overall improvement in the education status of our youth and to maximize the usage of college infrastructure, the college is contributing through personal contact programme for students of School of Open Learning of University of Delhi and through IGNOU study centres. We aim to live to the vision of our founder Sardar Dyal Singh Majithia and nurture our students to be responsible citizens of the country as well as train them in humanitarian values to serve our society. Consequent to the hard work put together by our teaching and non-teaching staff and excellence of our students in different fields, the college is currently Ranked 34 all over India (according to NIRF rankings) and was awarded 'A' certificate by NAAC.

CONCEPT NOTE

The Indian Knowledge System (IKS) represents a vast, ancient, and deeply rooted intellectual tradition that evolved over thousands of years in the Indian subcontinent. It encompasses a wide spectrum of disciplines, including philosophy, mathematics, astronomy, medicine, linguistics, arts, architecture, law, and spirituality. Rooted in the Vedic texts and further developed through centuries of scholarly inquiry, the Indian Knowledge System reflects a holistic worldview that integrates science, ethics, and metaphysics. In contemporary times, there is renewed interest in IKS due to its potential to offer alternative solutions to modern challenges, including mental health, environmental sustainability, education, and wellness. The Indian government and academic institutions are actively working to integrate IKS into mainstream education and research, recognizing its relevance in the global knowledge landscape. Thus, the Indian Knowledge System is not just a relic of the past but a living tradition that continues to inform, inspire, and guide human progress through its comprehensive, integrative, and timeless wisdom. The present Faculty Development Program aims to address these concerns in some domains as mentioned below:

- Vedic and Philosophical Traditions
- Mathematics and Astronomy
- Ayurveda and Traditional Medicine
- Languages and Grammar
- Architecture and Engineering
- Performing Arts and Literature
- Ethics, Law, and Governance
- Ecological and Agricultural Practices
- Environment and Human Civilisation

The program aims to equip faculty with skills aligned with the vision of NEP 2020 which emphasizes the instilling of a research and innovation temperament in academia. The course shall better guide faculty in dealing with the interdisciplinary nature of research and methods to integrate knowledge bases from diverse disciplines for fostering a holistic approach to the process of research.
