Notice Regarding IQAC Remedial Sessions

We are delighted to ensuring the academic achievement of our students, and as a part of our ongoing commitment to support their learning , we are pleased to provide information about remedial sessions for first , third, fifth and seventh semester students in B.COM(H) and B.Com courses. These remedial sessions, organised by the Department's IQAC Remedial Sessions Committee, are designed to assist academically challenged students who may have missed classes due to unavoidable circumstances or are encountering difficulties in their respective courses.

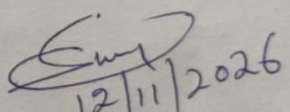

To participate in these remedial sessions, all interested students are required to fill the Google form by 16th November 2026.

The link to the form is provided below:
